BERLIN, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Germany's "big push" against the Versailles peace treaty is on in full force today.
The German demand for equality in armaments, made through a memorandum to the French government, was considered the most important onslaught on Versailles since the unsuccessful effort to conclude a German-Austrian customs union.
The partial scrapping of reparations at the Lausanne conference was interpreted here as a further crumbling of the Versailles system.
Germany's position is that the world powers cannot achieve radical, world-wide disarmament. The German army must be reformed in proportion with the military evolution of other countries.
A government spokesman emphasized that the memorandum contained no detailed technical re-arming of the German armed forces, but was limited, a discussion of principles. Among these was the argument that Germany must be allowed that is conceded to other nations.
The spokesman said no conversations were inaugurated with France because the French have always divulged a minimum understanding of the German demands.
Other developments in the German situation which added to focus the world's attention on the Reich included:
—Increased German tariffs threatened important markets for American products. Representatives of leading American typewriter manufacturers are to discuss the situation resulting from a virtual doubling of tariffs on

The comptroller said he did not know who was being considered by President Hoover as his possible successor. However, it was learned that the name of Howard W. Simms of Chicago, a former national bank examiner, has received considerable attention.

COLLINS LEADS IN BATTLE FOR CONGRESS VOTE

Nomination in Nineteenth District Seems Assured at Noon Today
UNLESS RETURNS from less than a score of scattered precincts change the count, Sam Collins, district attorney of Orange county, today seemed assured of the Republican nomination to congress from the newly created Nineteenth district.
Collins had a lead of approximately 1200 votes over Lyman King of Redlands. Political observers held, however, that there was small chance the returns yet to be received would materially change the count.
At noon today returns had been received from 721 precincts out of 738 in the congressional district comprising Orange, Riverside and San Bernardino counties. At that hour San Bernardino was short 10 precincts and Riverside county had seven more to hear from, all in the Palos Verde Valley. The precincts are small but said to favor Collins.
The vote at noon was divided as follows:
Orange county complete: King, 2681; Kline, 5115; Miller, 1510; Collins, 11,862; Crosby, 1230; Hadaller, 2508; McKinney, 5745.
Riverside County: 149 out of 156 precincts: King, 2734; Kline, 5038; Miller, 1441; Collins, 1884; Crosby, 345; Hadaller, 1310; McKinney, 2150.
San Bernardino County: 328 out of 338 precincts: King, 9074; Kline, 3494; Miller, 2736; Collins, 1922; Crosby, 621; Hadaller, 5606; McKinney, 2683.
Total vote: King, 14,499; Collins, 15,768; Kline, 13,647; Miller, 4687; Crosby, 2196; Hadaller, 9,424; McKinney, 10,608.
B. Z. McKinney of Santa Ana was assured the Democratic nomination and at noon had a lead of 1184 votes. He will oppose Collins in the general election this fall.

BUILDING WRECKED BY CHICAGO BOMB

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(UP)—A powerful bomb wrecked a $25,000 brick building on the south-west side today, killed a passerby and injured two girls who were asleep in a room across the street.
So complete was the destruction that it was impossible, they said, to determine how the explosion had been set off.
An unidentified man who was walking past was killed instantly. The body was burned beyond recognition.
Rose Patroni, 15, and her sister, Lillias, 17, who were sleeping in their home across the street, were injured by flying glass.
The building, housed a drug store and a barber shop. Police said one room had been used by John (Red) Bolton, gangster, as a speakeasy.

Miss Klingensmith qualified for the 50 mile Aerol Trophy race for women when she flew the 40 winged monoplane belonging to Johnny Livingston, Aurora, Ill., over the course at an average of 198.611 miles an hour. Her fastest run was 206.549 with the wind.

STOCK MARKET ADVANCES WITH RAILS STRONG

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Railroad stocks pulled the stock market substantially higher today despite a diminution of speculative interest with the approach of the Labor day holiday.
After several false starts in the early trading the entire market turned strong toward the close, accompanied by a swelling of activity. Early dealings were dull, indicating the desire of many traders to remain on the sidelines pending indications as to the immediate course of the market.
When the rail stocks began their advance, toward the close, buyers swarmed into the market. Many of the less important shares were carried to new highs for the year. Among the rails, Louisville & Nashville, Atlantic Coast line and the Western Maryland issues reached new highs for the year on gains of a fraction to several points. Pennsylvania rose more than 2 points and New York Central rose a point to around the $30

FOUR NAVY FLIERS KILLED IN CRASH

CRISTOBAL, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Four U. S. navy fliers attached to the Coco Solo fleet air base were killed today when their seaplane crashed during target practice off Cristobal.

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 1.—(UP)—The Most Rev. Peter Purnasconi, apostolic delegate to the United States, was mentioned today as most likely to succeed the deceased Cardinal Willem Van Rossum as prefect of the Holy congregation of propaganda fide, and thus be elevated to the rank of cardinal at the November consistory, the United Press learned today.
The position is one of the highest in the Roman Catholic church and its incumbent is frequently referred to as the "Red Pope" because of his worldwide influence through missionary promotion.

DECLARE TRUCE IN STRIKE OF FARM OWNERS

Bitter Enders Battle to Continue Blockade of Omaha Markets
OMAHA, Neb., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Bitter enders among the striking farmers today battled desperately against overwhelming odds to continue their blockade of the Omaha market.
Disregarding the truce declared by Milo Reno, head of the Farmers' Holiday association, small picket groups maintained their camps on the highways leading to this city and conducted a dogged, sullen fight.
Tires were punctured, windshields smashed, engines opened to permit livestock to escape, heads bruised and beaten, as the strikers fought with officers who outnumbered them.
"We're going to do our best to stop milk trucks at least," said leaders of the little handful of men who remained from the ranks of the picket armies of a few days ago.
The men were bitter against the truce order, charging that it had destroyed all hope of obtaining a higher price for milk. They believed creamery owners would have capitulated had the strike continued in full force for another 48 hours.
Many of the pickets gave up the battle in disgust when the truce was reached, and returned to their homes. On several highways only eight or ten men stood guard today where as many as 500 were encamped yesterday.
Many trucks got through the lines, some of them, however,

STATE MUST AGREE BEFORE AID COMES

FRESNO, Calif., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Only when California agrees on its water conservation and development program may aid be expected from congress, Senator Clarence C. Dill, member of the senate committee on irrigation and reclamation warned the state today.
Speaking at a dinner here, Senator Dill said, "You cannot expect anything from congress until you agree. . . . When you lay a definite proposal before congress, you will find action."
Senator Dill and the other members of the party, who are inspecting water sites to determine feasibility of federal aid, left this morning for Merced, via Mendota and Dos Palos. They were to spend the night in Stockton.

TELEPHONE STRIKE IS NOT EFFECTIVE

HUTCHINSON, Kan., Sept. 1.—(UP)—The threatened telephone "strike" here has resulted in a loss of "exactly 31 out of a total of 6269 telephones in Hutchinson during the past 30 days," H. M. Cowan, district manager, said in a statement issued today.
Service to about 50 other subscribers who offered to pay less than the usual rate has been suspended. Cowan added, but these telephones have not been taken out, since the company "decided that it would be only fair to give these customers a few days' time for a final decision."

Voliva Still Says Earth Saucer Shaped

ZION, Ill., Sept. 1.—(UP)—"All it proves is that when the moon gets in the way the sunlight gets dimmer," said Wilbur Glenn Voliva today in commenting on the eclipse of the sun.
"It does not prove that the world is round any more than did my traveling around it," said the religious leader who contends the earth is saucer shaped and that if one traveled to its ice bound rim he would fall off.
Voliva said his faith, or lack of it, in astronomers was not strengthened because they predicted the eclipse to a second.

Decrease in Bank Closings of 75.4 Per Cent Reported for Week
CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(UP)—A 75.4 per cent decrease in bank closings with new and reopened banks outnumbering those closing is reported by Rand McNally company in their weekly banking survey.
The drop in closings brought the number to the lowest since Aug. 28, 1930. Only once before in 1932 and at no time in 1931 had reopenings been larger than closings.
Eight banks closed during the week, two in Missouri and one each in Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Montana, South Dakota and Texas. Two new state banks were formed and seven reopened. Other bright spots in business today are:
—The Illinois Gear and Machine company reopened its Ganschow division plant of Gear and Rollings, Inc., and has made substantial additions to its working force.
—Transcontinental and Western Air reported a continued upward trend in business today. "Passenger increased 23 per cent during August over the record-breaking previous month," H. W. Another Is Said To Be Near Death

One Loses Life at Stanton When Train Strikes Auto at Crossing
TWO WOMEN met death and another is expected to die as a result of two automobile accidents here in the past 24 hours.
One was killed near San Clemente at 12:30 o'clock this morning, the other at Stanton yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock when the car she was driving was struck by a Pacific Electric train.
Mrs. Beatrice Cynthia Bullock, 30, Montebello woman, was almost instantly killed when the car in which she was riding with her brother-in-law, Wayne D. Bullock, also of Montebello, crashed head on into another car, driven by Melvin Nelson, of San Diego.
Although Wayne D. Bullock escaped without serious injury, his sister-in-law received head injuries which caused her death in the San Clemente hospital an hour later.
All three occupants of the Nelson machine were injured seriously. Margaret Gillis, San Diego, was so severely hurt that little hope is held for her recovery. She suffered internal injuries and a fractured pelvis bone. The other occupant of the machine was Jack Strong, also of San Diego.
The Bullock machine was going south at the time of the accident and Nelson was driving north. The accident occurred on the straight road known as the Serra front.
Inquest Planned
The body of Mrs. Bullock was removed to the Divel funeral parlors at San Clemente where an inquest will be held at 10 a. m. Saturday, according to a statement made today by Earl Abbey, coroner.
The second fatal accident on the Santa Ana-Los Angeles line of the Pacific Electric railway within 24 hours occurred yesterday afternoon at the Katella road crossing when a southbound train crashed into an automobile driven by Mrs. Lou Stafford, 55, bride of two months, killing her instantly.

The estimates were based on a total of votes cast in the senatorial race as the most indicative of a general vote.
There were 33,332 votes, combined Republican and Democratic, cast in the U. S. Senate race. With a total registration of more than 58,000 voters the per cent of registered voters who exercised their rights of franchise was slightly more than 57 per cent.
Semi-official returns for the primary election were announced today by County Clerk J. M. Backs. Official returns will not be available until after a canvass of the vote by the board of supervisors. This canvass is scheduled for next Tuesday, the regular board meeting date.
Figures given below are those announced today by Backs.
The most interest in the election this year centered on the election between Clyde Downing and Nelson T. Edwards for the Republican nomination for state senator and the supervisory races in the First and Third districts.

Republican Nominee Leaves for Santa Barbara to Rest for Next Few Days

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Assured of the Republican nomination to the United States senate, Taftant Tubbs, youthful state senator who was practically unknown nationally until a few months ago, left his election headquarters today and planned to rest in Santa Barbara from the strenuous activities of his campaign.
Although delayed returns trickling in from scattered counties cut down the lead he held over Senator Samuel H. Shortridge, he continued to be 14,230 votes ahead with only 506 of the state's 10,331 precincts unreported. Political observers said it would be practically impossible for the veteran Senator Shortridge to overcome that lead.
Meanwhile, William Gibbs McAdoo's overwhelming lead in the Democratic race continued to grow on the basis of scattered final returns. He was 110,000 votes ahead of his nearest competitor, Justus A. Wardiel of San Francisco.

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Eva Tanguay, the "I Don't Care" girl who brightened the stage a generation ago, is showing a constant improvement in health, her sister, Mrs. Walter Gifford said today.
Miss Tanguay a week ago was discovered in Hollywood critically ill with a combination of Bright's disease, rheumatism and heart trouble. Financial reverses had added to her troubles, and she was losing her eyesight.
"Miss Tanguay had the best night's sleep in several weeks," Mrs. Gifford said. "We are all very encouraged over her steady improvement."

level, its highest price in many months.

Old time leaders like Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and Atchafalpa advanced in spirited fashion. These issues making gains of 2 to 4 points before the close. There was nothing in the outside news to explain the new activity in the rails except the imminence of the four party eastern railroad consolidation. This factor, however, did not account for the strength in the western carriers.

Encouraged by the strength in the rails, pools resumed operations in many special issues. Among the stronger groups were the silk, aviation and chemical, while utilities, motors and coppers were neglected. Stocks of the calibre of United States Steel, American Can and American Telephone made relatively little headway on the upside, although they were able to establish gains of about a point each.

Turnover showed a sharp falling off from recent levels with many traders determined to stay out of the market over the week end. Sales to 2:30 p. m. approximated 1,900,000 shares, indicating a turnover of around two and one-half million shares.

CIVIL SERVICE IN STATEMENT ON 'COACHING'

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 1.—The following statement is made by the United States Civil Service Commission:

The commission warns the public against paying money for "coaching" courses in preparation for federal civil service examinations. Schools which sell such courses under present conditions accept money under false pretenses. A purveyor of civil service courses is now under indictment in Iowa for false representation. It is expected that other such cases of prosecution will follow.

Comparatively few appointments are being made in the federal civil service. Vacancies which must be filled are filled by the transfer of those in the service or the reinstatement of those who have been in the service wherever practicable.

It is seldom necessary to announce an examination. In most cases large registers of eligibles exist as a result of examinations held during the past year. When an examination is announced, the applicants are usually hundreds of times in excess of the need.

Money paid for civil service coaching courses at this time might almost as well be thrown to the four winds.

If you can go to Domremy, where Joan of Arc was born eight years before Columbus discovered America, and can resist the many efforts which the guides and tourist companies will make to have you visit the basilica on the site of the town where, it is said, she heard her "voices" if you can go there on a sunny afternoon and purposely omit to visit the museum in the cottage, with the souvenir and showpiece, and just wander about the village, which has not changed much since she lived her first seventeen years within it, if you can wander where she played as a child on the banks of the Meuse, and escape the crowd of visitors you will then most enjoy Domremy.

Two persons were injured at 12:20 a. m. today when the car in which they were riding crashed into a parked truck in front of 925 South Van Ness street.

The car was driven by Jack Schillings of 915 Orange avenue, who at the time, was returning home five persons from a party, which had been held at 1118 South Van Ness street, according to a report filed with the Santa Ana police.

Those injured were: Jewell Theobald, 2418 Polinetta street, and Evelyn Sheppard, 15, of 1004 West Fifth street. Others in the machine at the time were Coyle Loy of Long Beach, Forrest Neal of 730 Cypress street, Leroy Finster of 1115 South Van Ness street and the driver of the car. The truck was registered to L. C. Silcott of 925 South Van Ness street. The force of the impact knocked the heavy truck over the curb and a distance of 30 feet from where it was parked.

LABOR DAY TO BE OBSERVED WITH BIG RODEO

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1.—Los Angeles is making ready again for its annual fiesta, but this year the affair will be limited to a one-day event.

With September 5, Labor Day, appointed for the occasion, the highlight of the celebration will be a "World Congress of Rough Riders and Rodeo", to be given in Olympic Stadium. The Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce has the event in hand.

General invitations will be issued throughout the southern end of the state for the public to attend. As an opener for the day's proceedings, a street parade of the type seen during last year's fiesta will be held in the morning.

In the afternoon's "congress and rodeo" program, 1000 crack horsemen and horsewomen will ride in contests requiring skill and daring. Approximately 20 different nations will be represented by the finest equestrians they can produce, the statement says.

Prior to the start of the actual rodeo, these riders will demonstrate the feats of horse for which their nationalities are noted. When the rodeo begins, it is announced, the champion buckaroos of Pendleton, Selmas, Calgary and Cheyenne will be seen in action.

The wildest horses possible to be secured are held in waiting for the coming contests between man and beast. The rodeo will be a renewal for one afternoon, it is said, of the old days of California, when the ranches held full sway.

Ranch boys, ranging in age from 8 to 14, have been invited to ride in equestrian contests. The Junior Chamber will award prizes for horsemanship, costumes and mounts.

GARDENS OF ENGLAND

As in many years past English nobility and gentry will open their estates and gardens to visitors who delight in such beauty and special days of each week are set apart for different gardens. The London Times of each Saturday prints the list for the week following. Every Wednesday and Thursday, for example, from 11 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. the King opens his Royal gardens at Sandringham. After July 1, the Princess Royal and the Earl of Harewood similarly open their estate of Harewood every Wednesday. Occasionally, the Halls and Castles on the estates are open and in a few instances, tea is served to visitors. It all makes the tourist feel at home in England.

TRUCE FROM CHINA

The Golden Pavilion of Jehol, finest temple in China, and for long time summer home of the Peking emperors, is to be shipped to Chicago and reconstructed there for the World's Fair this year.

WEEKS SQUAD REPORTS TUESDAY

Sellout Looms For Santa Ana-Anaheim Tilt

WILLIAM BRAUCHER

"Gaby" Street hasn't been doing right by dear old Dizzy Dean. The young man would like to see a little more of himself on the pitching slab. During a recent road trip of the Cardinals, the staff was in bad shape, and Jerome, old boy, was called upon about every other day to finish a game or start one.

But, since the other fingers rounded into shape, Dizzy has been back to his old position.

"I'm getting tired of promises," he said the other day in St. Louis. "I've only pitched about nine innings in the last 10 days and I feel like I've been loafing on the job. I need a lot of work to keep fit and Gaby Street knows it. Every night he promises me I'll pitch the next day, but an hour before game time some other pitcher gets the call."

DON'T NEED REST

He was reminded that perhaps Gaby's idea was to give him a little rest after a hard trip on the road.

"I don't need rest," replied Dizzy. "Every night I go home thinking I'm the next day's pitcher. I go to bed about 7:30 or 8 o'clock so I get a good night's rest, and even pass up the early batting practice so I won't be tired when it's time to do my stuff on the hill. I imagine my disappointment when I find out I've been kidded again."

It was this observer's thought that perhaps Gaby's idea was to give young Mr. Dean an incentive to go to bed on time. But that was not mentioned, and Dean continued:

"I won't think this is a good year if I don't win 18 or 20 games. Besides, I have some side bets on hitting and stealing bases with Tex Carleton and Jimmy Wilson, and I won't have a chance to cash in unless Gaby uses me more often."

"If I could pitch often I could win seven more games and come in with 25 victories."

AND IS THAT ALL!

To achieve his purpose, Dizzy wants to pitch only one-third of the Cardinals' remaining games.

"I've lost some hard luck games lately," he said, "last week against the Phils. I pitched three innings and was taken out when the Phils got lucky and scored five runs off me. I could have come back the next day or at least two days later, but I was held out until Sunday and then I had to go in as a relief pitcher, working only for six innings. I lost a game that I wasn't given the privilege of starting, by a tough break in the field, and I figured I would be allowed to get even in the second game. Instead, Street got the job."

Dean pointed out that when he was pitching for Houston in the Texas league last year, he always was given the "courtesy" of pitching at least one Sunday double-header at home.

"If the Cards only will let me pitch a double-header at home before the season is over, I won't say another word," said Dizzy. "And I'll try to forget that I've been slighted."

WOOD, DON PREPARE FOR BIG SPEED DUEL

DETROIT, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Their powerful hydroplanes ready, Kaye Don, English challenger, and Gar Wood, American defender, plan only easy tussles runs before they come racing over the starting line early Saturday in what is expected to be the greatest display of competitive speed on water ever seen.

Don's boat, the white-hulled Miss England III, has been taken over the seven-mile course in Lake St. Clair a few times by Don. He shot her along at speeds estimated as high as 115 miles an hour for short stretches, and tried her on the turns for maneuverability.

Wood has not yet had his new creation, Miss America X, on the course, but expects to test her today or tomorrow.

SEVENTH GAME TOMORROW TO FINISH SERIES

Indicating that the year's largest crowd will sit in on championship proceedings tomorrow night, a block of 700 tickets for the Santa Ana-Anaheim series finale was sold in 25 minutes here today.

Horace Snow, John Wilcox and Otto Jacobs, officials of the Santa Ana club, immediately dispatched messengers to Anaheim for additional reservations and secured 150 more tickets which were disappearing rapidly this afternoon. These, the last for all the reserved sections, will remain on sale at the Victor Walker sporting goods establishment until dispensed.

All seats will be reserved at Anaheim with the exception of those in the far-flung outfield which will go to first-come customers at the same tariff.

Meantime, both clubs remain up-pitch again, and that the usual seventh and odd game of a desperately contested series, one almost as thrilling as the "grudge" playoff of 1931.

Having escaped suspension for his row with Umpire "Shorty" Smith Tuesday, Manager George Lackey will be in charge of the Stars and he has semi-officially announced that Ira DeBusk will pitch again, and that the usual Santa Ana lineup will start.

George Peterkin, president of the National Night league, summoned Lackey into conference yesterday but let the fiery leader off with a reprimand after hearing his side of the quarrel. Lackey, who was suspended in baseball, but when Smith shook Lackey and physically assisted in his election from the park the umpire opened himself also to presidential censure.

Umpires have had a hectic time during the past two weeks, and Peterkin has given no indication as to who would work the titular tussle. Reports were current, however, that the officials would be switched around again, especially for work on the bases where most of the trouble has started.

Anaheim's Vic Ruddy, Errington for the deciding assignment, turned in one of the best games of the series last Tuesday despite his 4-3 defeat which was occasioned largely through errors.

LAKE SWIM WON BY BLAGDEN, AMERICAN

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 1.—(UP)—George Blagden of Tennessee, a warm water swimmer, brought the world's marathon swimming championship back to the United States after a thrilling 15-mile race through the frigid waters of Lake Ontario, during which the defending champion was nearly drowned.

The powerful Memphis swimmer covered the 15 laps in the record-shattering time of 7 hours, 14 minutes, 15 seconds, beating the previous record by almost 24 minutes, and taking the first place prize of $7500 from 190 of the world's best long distance swimmers.

George Young of Toronto, winner in 1931 and a favorite to repeat, was the victim of an accident. At the end of the twelfth lap he was starting his drive for leadership, when his head struck a heavy wooden float which marked the course.

A snap went up from the 100,000 spectators along the shore when they saw him sink unconscious. Nearly swimmers hurried to his assistance, and held him up until boats arrived.

LOYOLA, BRUINS TO MEET THIS SEASON

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Loyola university and the University of California at Los Angeles will meet this season on the football field, Steve Cunningham, U. C. L. A. graduate manager, announced today. The scheduling of an annual game between the two ended a dispute of coaches extending over two years. The game this year was expected to open the season for both, although it has not been definitely set.

WOOD, DON PREPARE FOR BIG SPEED DUEL

DETROIT, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Their powerful hydroplanes ready, Kaye Don, English challenger, and Gar Wood, American defender, plan only easy tussles runs before they come racing over the starting line early Saturday in what is expected to be the greatest display of competitive speed on water ever seen.

Don's boat, the white-hulled Miss England III, has been taken over the seven-mile course in Lake St. Clair a few times by Don. He shot her along at speeds estimated as high as 115 miles an hour for short stretches, and tried her on the turns for maneuverability.

Wood has not yet had his new creation, Miss America X, on the course, but expects to test her today or tomorrow.

Riverside's Club Spanks Rialto Again

Riverside probably will meet the winner of Friday's Santa Ana-Anaheim contest for the Southern California night baseball title.

The surprising Rubes, first half champions, defeated Rialto, second half monarchs, for the second successive time at Colton last night. The score was 3 to 2.

"Lefty" Watson, Riverside first baseman, won the game for his club by hitting a homer over the right field fence in the seventh inning and Pitcher Chet Briggs saved it in the ninth when he relieved Lightenwelder with two on and none out and retired the side without further disturbance.

The inland clubs are playing three-out-of-five series which will be completed tomorrow night if Riverside can win against the Stars.

The score:

Rialto . . . 010 001 000—2 9 3
Riverside . . . 000 020 10x—3 9 1

Batteries: Rialto—Botts and Bramlett; Riverside—Lightenwelder, Briggs and Zikrath.

ROSENBERG TO REPLACE BAKER IN TROY LINE

(Note: This is the third of seven articles on Trojan football prospects, taking up the subject by positions.)

BY AL WESSON

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1.—When a running guard of the terrific speed, blocking ability and defensive sense of Johnny Baker is lost to a football team, it offers a coach a splendid chance to break down with a good cry over the importance of the loss.

But Howard Jones of the University of Southern California has 13 good reasons for overlooking what to most coaches would be a golden opportunity. First, Jones makes the best of any football situation without signs of sorrow. Second, Aaron Rosenberg, third to thirteen, same as second.

"Rosenberg, who is as Jewish as his name and as genial and good-natured as he is Jewish, is destined to play an extremely important part in Trojan football fortunes during the next two seasons. As good as Baker was last season, he almost lost his job to "Rosenberg" who had everything needed to make a varsity star but behind him, he now also has the experience, and if he doesn't make good there will be a lot of surprised people, chief among them being Meers, Jones and Rosenberg.

Weights 210 Pounds

The genial Aaron, who is one of the best liked students at S. C., is 6 feet in height, 20 years of age, weighs 210. He has a large job ahead in filling Baker's place but he seems to be large enough for it.

At the standing guard position the Trojans will have Larry Stevens, the dark horse star of the S. C. team last year. Two years ago, Larry was just an ordinary freshman tackle with only a little previous prep experience and with more goody woe of blocking and charging than Pross Coach Aubrey Devine had ever seen before.

There was no reason at the beginning of his sophomore season to believe that he would ever make much of a showing in varsity football, but Coach Jones was struck by his eagerness with which Larry strove to learn the fundamentals of line play. With such pupils, Jones is a patient and thorough teacher and Stevens' improvement was so rapid that after the first game of the season he was given a trial at the standing guard position. Larry improved steadily all last season and held his varsity position.

Stevens Has Speed

Before he grew too big for the sport, he was a track man, but with his 205 pounds Stevens still retains good speed. He is 20, is 6 feet, 2 inches in height. He comes from Oakland, formerly attended Piedmont high school and is the son of Jay W. Stevens, state fire warden.

For guard reserves, Coach Jones will have Frank Williamson, javelin throwing star in track and a brother of Stan, the 1931 football captain, to back up Rosenberg at running guard. Francis McGinley, rushing running guard, will be another good prospect for this post.

To back up Stevens, the varsity reserve last year, and Oliver Bardin of the frosh. Other guard prospects expected to return to the Trojan squad are Dick Rippey, Gene Ridings and Bob Collier of the Spartans and Tom Murray of the freshmen.

SCHAAF SAVED BY BELL FROM BAER KNOCKOUT

By GEORGE KIRKSEY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Max Baer's lethal fists pounded today at Heavyweight Champion Jack Sharkey's door.

Those two flailing fists sent Ernie SchAAF, big Bostonian, reeling to a crushing defeat last night in the Chicago stadium and Baer to the front ranks of the heavy contenders.

Baer's victory will go in the record books as a 10-round decision, but to the crowd of 6500, who saw SchAAF stretched unconscious on the floor at the final bell, it was a knockout.

The final bell rang just 10 seconds too soon to keep the referee from counting out SchAAF, hitherto regarded as one of the two or three foremost heavyweights.

Baer Finishes Fast

Staging a whirlwind finish in the last three rounds, Baer, 23-year-old German-Jewish-American from Livermore, Calif., wined and dined SchAAF to exhaustion and then felled him with the last two punches of the fight.

Baer, a magnificent athlete—6 feet, 3 inches in height and weighing 200 pounds, ripped his two fists to the weary SchAAF's head as the Bostonian came staggering off the ropes in the last few seconds of the final round. SchAAF toppled the face forward as if felled by an axe. Just as his face buried itself in the canvas, the last bell clanged.

SchAAF's seconds piled into the ring, lifted him to a sitting position and worked furiously to bring him back to consciousness. They poured water on his head, rubbed under his heart, and hoisted his legs in the air to start the blood flowing faster. SchAAF was completely out.

SchAAF Completely Out

The clock's hand moved on around its course from the 8-minute mark, where it was the end of the round, on up to the zero mark denoting the end of the minute's rest period between rounds and the start of another round. Had there been another round, SchAAF couldn't have come out for it. Al- though another minute passed before SchAAF finally shook off his stupor, came to and was able to scramble with difficulty to his feet.

It was the first time SchAAF, who weighed 209 1-2, has been knocked off his feet since Jack Sharkey and his manager, Johnny Buckley, bought the ex-sailor's contract two years ago. It was the most decisive defeat ever suffered by SchAAF, who had won 27 out of his last 29 bouts.

M'Millans, Grovers In Series Here

MacMillan Gasoline, champion of the Santa Ana City league, and Garden Grove, winner of both halves of the Orange County Night league, begin a two-out-of-three exhibition series at the Santa Ana Bowl tonight.

No dates have been set for the second and third games because of the uncertainty of the Santa Ana-Anaheim series, but they will all be played here. A ten-cent admission charge will be made to cover expenses.

MacMillan will pitch for the MacMillans with Melvin Beatty catching. Curt Youel, Smith, Labracherie and Blanchard Beatty in the infield, and Wimbush, Harnois and Schwarm in the outfield.

Garden Grove, which recently drubbed Westminster, 12-1, will pitch Ray Hodgson. His battery mate is Hapes, brother of the Santa Ana player. Coates, M. Dungan, Andres and Morse will handle infield posts with Conaway, B. Dungan and Phipps chasing flies.

TRIO OF VETERANS DROPPED BY ANGELS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 1.—(UP)—Four star performers who cost the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast league a total of $32,500 were released today as an economy measure.

They are Fred Haney, first baseman; Homer Summa, left fielder; and Malcolm Moss and George Caster, pitchers. They will be replaced by youngsters being groomed for the positions, according to Oscar Retchow, business manager of the club.

DEMPSEY MANAGER HURT IN ACCIDENT

ANADARKO, Okla., Sept. 1.—(UP)—Leonard Sacks, Jack Dempsey's manager, had a broken arm today after an automobile accident in which two Negro cotton field workers also were injured.

Police detained Sacks for questioning. The car in which Sacks and Denny Johnson were riding, en route to Los Angeles, side-swiped a truck carrying 27 Negroes. The accident occurred last night near Hydro.

CITY'S NETMEN PLAY DOUBLES FINALS FRIDAY

Finals in both championship and consolation rounds tomorrow will complete the second annual Public Playgrounds doubles tournament on the Frances Willard tennis courts. They begin at 5 p. m.

The father-and-son combination of H. G. and Lewis Wetherell is a slight favorite although it encountered a rather high hurdle today in Frank Bettis and Ray Dixon. The other semi-final match paired Harry Nissley and Fred Welmer against the brothers, R. B. and T. A. Willis.

The Wetherells yesterday defeated Dr. Kenneth Coulson and Toby White, 6-2, 3-6, 6-1. Other results: Dixon and Bettis,

COUNTY TAX LEVY ORDERED
BY SUPERVISORS; TOTAL
SANTA ANA RATE NOW $5.20

Final action was taken by the Board of Supervisors yesterday officially levying the county tax rates for the current fiscal year at $1.77 in unincorporated areas and $1.55 in incorporated cities.

This was in accordance with the rate set when the budget was adopted on August 19 following a public hearing when requests for a further reduction in the district road tax and an agreement to distribute a definite share of the gas tax to cities, were denied. Made an 8-cent cut in the proposed 15-cent rate to build up an unbalanced reserve fund.

Following is a segregation of tax rates making up the general county rate: County general, 24 1/2 cents; salary fund, 18 cents; health, 2 1/2 cents; hospital, 9 cents; welfare, 15 cents; interest and sinking, 7 1/2 cents; advertising, 8 of a cent; county school, 41 cents; county high school, 29 cents; unincorporated reserve, 7 cents; county park, 8 of a cent. These rates aggregate $1.55. Added to this total is 22 cents for roads in the unincorporated areas.

M. W. D. Four Cent Rate
In addition to the general county rates, the supervisors levied tax rates for the various school districts, water, sewer, lighting, library, fire and road improvement districts located within the county, fixing such rates to finance operations and take up outstanding obligations. Included in the latter class was a four cent rate charged to the cities of Anaheim, Fullerton and Santa Ana for the Metropolitan Water District.

The total Santa Ana rate now is $5.20. This is made up as follows: City, $1.55; school, $1.73; county, $1.55; M. W. D., $1.04, and cemetery, $0.35. Last year the total rate was $5.75.

Special school tax rates were listed as follows: Alamitos, $1.46; Anaheim, $1.80; Brea, $1.63; Buena Park, $1.71; Central, $1.85; Costa Mesa, $2.75; Cypress, $1.21; Diamond, $2.15; El Modena, $1.75; El Toro, $2 cents; Fountain Valley, $1.55; Fullerton, $1.61; Garden Grove, $2.05; Greenville, $1.55; Huntington Beach, $1.51; Katella, $1.46; Laguna, $1.27; La Habra, $1.85; Laurel, $1.81.

Other School Districts
Loara, 94 cents; Lowell Joint, 88 1/2 cents; Magnolia, $1.85; Newport Beach, $2.12; Ocean View, $1.65; Orlinda, $1.64; Olive, $1.35; Paulmarino, $1.53; Peralta, $1.03; Placentia, $1.55; San Clemente, $2.15; San Joaquin, $4 cents; San Juan, $1.33; Santa Ana, $1.73; Serrano, $1.51; Seal Beach, $1.48; Serra, $1.55; Silverado, $1.35; Springdale, $1.15; Tustin, $1.28; Villa Park, $1.43; Westminster, $1.75; Yorba, $1.55, and Yorba Linda, $1.81.

Special school tax rates charged to districts include special tax, building bonds, special rate for high schools, and a rate of 10 cents for junior college maintenance, the latter charge being assessed to each and every school district in the county.

Three cemetery districts appear on the county tax list, namely Anaheim at a rate of one cent; Orange county No. 1 at 3 cents and Westminster at 10 cents.

INSTALL NEW SWITCHBOARD
AT HIGH SCHOOL

Telephone company workmen are busy at the high school installing a new and modern private branch exchange switchboard in the office preparatory to the opening of school on September 12. The board being installed will replace the old one and is being placed at the school without charge.

According to D. K. Hammond, principal of the school, members of the office training class are given training on the switchboard as a part of their course. The old board had insufficient stations and did not thoroughly equip students to handle the new boards when they entered modern offices.

Because of the high type of training given students in the office training department, the telephone company made the installation without charge in keeping with its policy of co-operation with the schools.

Every student in the office training department of the high school is given an opportunity to work several weeks on the board. The practice is to have an inexperienced girl work with another student who has become proficient in handling the switchboard. Hammond said yesterday that last year 80 students received such training.

FAMOUS DRIVER
RECALLS HIS WEDDING HERE

Santa Anans stood amazed on the streets yesterday at the spectacle of a man driving a racing car about the city streets with a double blindfold over his eyes.

The driver was none other than Cliff Begere, famous automobile racing driver, and the car was one of the five custom built Studebaker cars which finished in the last Indianapolis race.

Begere received an almost royal welcome back to Santa Ana. He was here eight years ago as a guest of the county, having served five days in the Orange county jail on a speeding charge.

On the fifth day he brought his sweetheart here from Hollywood, Ramona Sharp, movie actress, and they were married at the jail door by Justice Kenneth Morrison. So yesterday, when Begere returned, Justice Kenneth Morrison and Orlo Moncrief, who was county jailer at the time, were present at the Studebaker agency at First and Main streets to greet him.

Begere is now on a tour of the country with his racer, the tour ending in about 10 days, after which Mr. and Mrs. Begere will move back to Hollywood and reside on the coast.

Mrs. C. W. Rowley and R. E. Launer, leaders of the clubs, are supervising the work.

NERVOUS WOMEN
Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

"I am so nervous it seems as though I should fly." "My nerves are all on edge." "I wish I were dead." . . . How often have we heard those expressions from some woman who has become so tired and run-down that her nerves can no longer stand the strain.

No woman should allow herself to drift into this condition if she can help herself. She should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. For nearly thirty years women have taken this wonderful tonic to give them renewed strength and vigor.

98 out of every 100 women who report to us say that they are benefited by the medicine. Buy a bottle from your druggist today . . . and watch the results.

REACH HIGHEST POINT

Believed to have soared to an altitude greater than any ever before attained by a living being, Professor August Piccard (left) and his assistant, Max Cosyns (right), are pictured above as they posed inside the gondola of the balloon which carried them more than ten miles into the stratosphere from Zurich, Switzerland. The 1750-pound metal gondola, seen below, has nine windows and was fastened to the balloon by eight cables. From the interior of this strange ball, high in the stratosphere, Professor Piccard, a Belgian scientist, made his studies of the cosmic ray and its effect on mankind.

BOMB WAS A DUD

HOUSTON, Tex.—Someone called the police department and urged the chief to send some policemen down to a cafeteria. A bomb had been left there, it was explained. Detectives Wilkins and Lyons went to the cafeteria and were given a bag out of which queer noises were coming. They took it down to the bayou banks and cut it open. Two turtles and a horned toad hopped out.

IMPROVED COLONIC TREATMENT

WOMEN BUSY
ON GARMENTS
FOR S. A. NEEDY

Upstairs in the old Willard school building at Tenth and Main streets, interesting welfare activities are constantly in progress for the needy of the city, of which the general public knows but little. The work is carried on by the Dorcas society of the Seventh Day Adventist church of Santa Ana.

Through the courtesy of the board of education, the room was secured for the Dorcas society several months ago. The room is admirably suited for the work that is being done there. Large cupboards cover one entire side of the room where articles may be stored.

Long tables and sewing machines have been donated, and through the courtesy of the Slinger Sewing Machine company of Santa Ana, two electric sewing machines are in use. Here, two afternoons each week, Mondays and Thursdays, members of the society gather to prepare all kinds of garments. Old dresses, coats and similar garments are mended and patched and stockings are darned.

Quilting is constantly going on, for there are many urgent calls for bedding during the winter months. Old stockings and rags are made into rugs, and not only are old garments mended, but also new ones are cut out and made.

But the demand is greater than the supply. In the last few months well over a thousand garments have been given out. More are wanted. It is the hope of the Dorcas Society that any Register readers who may have clean and usable garments will donate them to this worthy cause. Old shoes, hats, stockings, and all kinds of baby garments can be used and will be appreciated by members of the society.

SEE NO POSSIBILITY OF AID FOR WELFARE FROM OUTSIDE
SOURCES; UP TO S. A. CITIZENS

Santa Ana will have to provide its own necessary funds to carry forward essential social welfare and employment relief activities within the community for the coming year. The responsibility must be accepted as being that of local citizens and firms, and is not one which will be met through an allocation from the $300,000,000 fund to be dispersed through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

"Through definite information regularly Federal authorizations for highway and rural post road construction beginning with the year of 1935.

Meet Heavy Load
Inasmuch as the repayment of loans is guaranteed to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation by deduction from federal highway construction funds, it is generally agreed that with but a very few minor exceptions, funds for state relief through such loans will be expended in carrying on work programs involving state camps for homeless men and new highway construction, leaders point out.

The entire fund when distributed in the form of loans will be expended by state agencies which handle tax-collected money. This means according to the National Association of Community Chests, that private local relief and social service agencies will not even benefit indirectly through expenditure of such funds.

"With all available facts at hand, it is obviously important that the citizens of Santa Ana have no illusions to the effect that any loan by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation will affect the requirements for relief here," says Mellettin. "To the contrary and despite many favorable indications of general business improvement, the Community Chest and private relief agencies must prepare to meet the greatest service loads of their experience, during the coming year."

Interpretation of the Act demonstrates that allocations to states will not be gifts in any sense, but will be direct loans which must be reimbursed by deduction from

Santa Anans Make Northern Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackburn, 505 Cypress avenue, have returned from a two weeks' trip which took them to various points of interest in Northern California. They traveled by automobile, making Santa Maria one of their first stops.

The Blackburns spent one night in Oakland, and continued on via the Redwood highway to Lolla. Here they visited with Mrs. Blackburn's cousin, Mrs. J. H. Shaw, and the group went to Klamath river on a fishing trip. An 18-pound salmon was landed by Mr. Blackburn and Mrs. Shaw. Before starting on the return trip the Santa Anans visited Eureka, Lakeport, San Francisco, Big Basin and Santa Maria, before basing in making the homeward journey.

ANN MEREDITH'S MIXING BOWL

Here's Something New As An Appetizer

I am sure every woman who likes to serve nicely will be interested in new appetizers. Try this one for the first course some night soon.

Use ripe yellow cantaloupe, a half portion to each serving. Cut a thin slice off the stem-end so the cantaloupe cup will sit evenly on the plate. Scoop out the flesh and dice it, combine with one-third the amount of diced ripe tomato, dress with a very tart French dressing, put back in the shell and chill for an hour before serving.

Tomorrow I want to tell you about a simple but delicious suggestion, good enough for a small informal affair, and perfectly grand for every-day use.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Green Corn With Peppers En Casserole

12 ears green corn
3 green peppers
3 tablespoons butter
Salt and pepper
1-2 cup water
1-2 cup buttered crumbs.

Shave the corn from the cobs, shred the peppers, freed from seeds, season to taste and put in a buttered casserole. Slice butter over the top, add the water, cover and bake slowly 1 hour, then uncover, stir well, strewn crumbs over top and let brown nicely.

Sometimes corn won't be all it should be in flavor and quality; add a tablespoonful of sugar to bring up flavor, and to increase quantity add a small can of good corn.

Stuffed Onions

6 large onions, parboiled
1 slice cooked ham, minced
1 small cup crumbs
3 tablespoons butter
1 egg beaten with a little cream
Salt and pepper to taste.

Use the large flat onions, peel and cook in salted water 20 minutes. Drain, when cool enough to handle, scoop out the centers, being careful to leave the walls firm. Chop the scooped-out onion fine and make a filling by combining it with the ground ham, bread crumbs, eggs and cream. Fill the onions, stand them in a baking pan with a little water and butter and bake slowly until a fork will easily pierce the onion walls.

The corn casserole will serve eight generously, and the calories per person will average 25. The stuffed onions will serve six or eight by cooking two extra onions—the filling ingredients will stretch that far. The onions have a caloric value of 250 each.

Naturally, bread crumbs, butter, cream, ham, and so on, all stand for fat-making foods, but a judicious amount is necessary even with the overweight. Neither one digests fully without the other.

SWEET PICKLES, the current fad, is on the free list this week. To get it enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request.

Friday's recipe will be Oatmeal Drop Cookies, a fine recipe to fill up the cookie jar for the approaching school days.

Orchestra Pleases at Dance Staged Under Scioto Auspices
Scioto and their friends today claimed the happiest success for the dance staged under the auspices of the dance organization in the Moose hall last night. The dance, which was made an open event, will be one of a series of similar functions to be given bi-weekly, according to officers of the lodge.

Universal praise went to the orchestra, a musical organization of six pieces provided by Mrs. Nye Marten.

A large crowd enjoyed an entertaining evening of dance numbers, made exceptionally enjoyable by the excellent caliber of the music.

James Walker, Scioto Toparch and his fellow officers comprised an informal reception committee, while actual arrangements for the dance were credited to C. R. Morse and a committee consisting of William Dew, Claude M. Darden and Glen Lyman.

Beauceants Entertain With Benefit Affair
Members of the Social Order of the Beauceants were hostesses at a pleasant benefit party given last night when they entertained in the Masonic temple.

After the awards were made guests were invited to the dining room where a delicious meal was served. A yellow color scheme was used.

Kitchen Shower Given Miss Gebhard at Tea Shoppe
Graceful tribute was paid Miss Lillian Gebhard, as a bride-elect, Tuesday evening, when she was made the honoree at a kitchen shower arranged by Miss Helen Kohler and given in the Doris Kathryn Tea Shoppe.

The hostess employed a combination of flowers in decorating for her party, at which court whist was the principal diversion. Lovely prizes had been chosen by Miss Kohler for presentation to those among her guests holding high score at the latter game. To Miss Willa Mae Parks, who led at court whist, went a hand-painted chiffon evening handkerchief, while Miss Lois Hallman received a handsome table mirror, and Mrs. Paul M. Rogers, a gold and black silhouette picture.

Two courses of refreshments were served at a single long table which claimed for its centerpiece an artistically arranged bouquet of flowers in pastel tints.

Following the light repast Miss Gebhard proceeded to open and admire the attractive gifts which had been showered upon her by the guests, who included the Misses Olive Gebhard, Mrs. Emma Gebhard, Mesdames T. G. Bratsch, Lloyd Barker, Paul M. Rogers, Harry S. Carroll, Kenneth Chandler, Cecil Chambers, John H. Ebersole, Carl Dale, Fred Ambery; the Misses Lois Hallman, Willa Mae Parks, Ruth Ryan, Miss Myrtle Townsend, of Oakland, who is visiting Miss Ryan, and the hostess, Miss Helen Kohler.

During the business session, in charge of Mrs. Tubach, Miss Dorothy Leonard was chosen delegate to the 4-H club convention to be held September 8, 9 and 10 at Davis, (Calif.).

Two cakes were given away as special prizes, with Mrs. F. Brown winning one of these and Frank Leonard the other.

RUSH FOR GOLD DESCRIBED FOR ORANGE LIONS

ORANGE, Sept. 1.—The trail of '98 was described for members of the Lions club yesterday by Clifton Lamb, who joined the crowd of gold seekers in the gold fields of Alaska when a young man. Mr. Lamb, who is a member of the Anaheim Lions club, was a fellow townsman of Greg Stewart of Grand Junction, Colo., who staked out the first claim on Bonanza creek.

Those taking part in the gold rush were known mostly by nicknames acquired from incidents of their lives or by personal characteristics. Mr. Lamb said. Men might bear such names as "Arizona Charlie," "Swiftwater Bill," "Nigger Jim" or "Arizona Kid" and not be known to associates by any other name.

Lamb took two teams of oxen with him to Alaska for hauling and at many places he was offered $5 per pound for his animals as there was no fresh meat in the district.

Gamblers infested the gold rush district, said the speaker, but they were never allowed to cross the pass into Canada, being prevented by the Royal Mounted Police.

In describing the snow of Alaska, the speaker declared it to be a "shroud of death." Lamb said one winter he placed his cache on top of a rock 20 feet high and every two weeks he visited the spot raising the cache above the level of the snow. At the end of the winter, he declared, the cache was 40 feet above the level of the rock on which he had first placed it. The Chilkoot pass is a place where the war of the winds constantly takes place, said the speaker and as a consequence great quantities of snow fall there. It is here that the cold winds of the interior meet the warm winds of the ocean.

Lamb was in Alaska for nearly four years and during that time panned enough gold to make his venture a profitable one. He had the first claim in the Dyea district and worked in the vicinity of Dawson for the greater part of the time.

Most of the men on the trail were soldiers of fortune, and many of them had seen all of the far corners of the earth. The gold trail had a steep code of ethics in regard to private property, the speaker explained, and many times animals would be left to starve along the trail because no one dared molest another's property even though apparently abandoned.

Valencia Orange Shipments Reach 3902 Cars to Date

ORANGE, Sept. 1.—The shipping of 3902 cars of Valencia oranges of the 1932 crop brings shipments to date at the highest point at a similar date in the history of the Orange County Fruit exchange, according to C. C. Hillis, manager.

During the month of August, Hillis stated, 1935 cars of Valencia oranges were shipped and 650 cars of lemons. This practically clears up the shipments of lemons in the district, Hillis said.

The largest women's organization in the city and next to the largest women's club in the county, the Orange Women's club, will hold its first meeting of the year on September 19. The first meeting, which would have fallen on the first Monday of the month, has been advanced to the former date owing to the fact that the first Monday is a legal holiday, Labor day.

The members of the Business and Professional Women's club are planning a year of programs, consisting of talks or musical programs interspersed with social events of a varied nature.

Adelaide Proctor is the newly elected president. The Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church has chosen "The Indian" as the topic of the year.

The usual programs of home and foreign missionary topics will be given by the members of the Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church who usually discuss both topics at each meeting.

Among the most interesting social events of the past two years has been the Friendship feast given by the women of the First Presbyterian church. The first of the events of the year is to be given September 8. This will be a rally and a reunion. Luncheon is to be served at 1 o'clock in the church basement.

Mrs. B. D. Stanley, chairman of last year's Friendship chain, will be in charge and plans for the year are to be announced by Mrs. E. H. Smith, who is chairman of next year's chain.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KING

The dangling ladder, made of rope, gave every Tinymite new hope. 'Twas rather hard to climb it, but they all stuck to the task. "We'll leave our small handcar behind," said Duncy, "but I do not mind. This ladder leads to some place new and what more can we ask?"

"I think the talking had best stop until we reach the very top," said Scouty. "We're not out of here until we're on safe ground. We're foolish if we hesitate. This ladder's holding lots of weight. Just climb. We might get dizzy, if we start to look around."

So step by step, they moved along, all hoping that naught would go wrong. At last Scouty reached the top. "Hurrah!" I'm safe," cried he.

"There's nothing much to see up here, except a forest which is near. We'll all go exploring just as soon as you join me."

The others scrambled to the ground and then, as Duncy looked around, he shouted very loudly, "Look! I see a pile of rocks."

The rest then gazed and Coppy cried, "Those are not rocks that you have spied. They all have letters on them and I'm sure they're little blockheads."

The Tinies then ran right up near. "Say! What are you lads doing there?" exclaimed a funny little voice. "Perhaps you'd like to play."

Then Duncy said, "This is a joke. That was a little block that spoke. We've met some little blockheads and we'll have some fun today."

Then to the blockheads he cried out, "Tell us what this is all about." "All right," one of them answered. "Some real acrobats you have found."

The next thing that the blockheads did was break up their fine pyramid. The Tinies watched them closely as they scrambled to the ground.

Duncy gets a surprise in the next story.

GARDEN GROVE, Sept. 1.—The Young People's choir of the local Foursquare church met at the home of Miss Lettie Harper this week, when a newly wedded couple, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell C. Jaynes, was surprised when the practice culminated into a kitchen shower.

Miss Lettie Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Baker, and Lowell Jaynes, son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Jaynes, were united in marriage August 25 at the First Christian church in Long Beach.

Miss Mildred Weaver, leader of the choir and co-hostess for the evening, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "When Church Is Out." The honorees were presented with a gift with instructions to the effect that the bride and groom were to receive many useful gifts, the last one being a beautifully decorated wedding cake, which they found in the kitchen cupboard.

Refreshments were served at five prettily appointed tables by Miss Grace Inamoto. At the bride's table stood a miniature bride and groom under a white wedding veil and in front was a fern covered lattice fence.

Centered on the table, other favors were dolls dressed as bridesmaids and best men. Bags of rice were at each place.

Those present besides the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Jaynes, were the Misses Alice and Gladys Brownmiller, Ramona Weaver, Cornelia Hogue, Flossie Crowell, Loren Baker, Thelma Smith, Mrs. Brunell, Mrs. Shuler, Marvin Brownmiller, Alfred and B. Boys Given Poultry And Rabbit Data

LA HABRA, Sept. 1.—Elmer Koenig, of El Modena, and Mr. Davies, consulting leader for the Southern District 4-H clubs, together with a rabbit demonstration team from West Orange, presented an instructive program for the Boys' 4-H club of La Habra at a special meeting last evening.

Koenig instructed the boys in conditioning poultry for exhibition at fairs and pointed out the good and bad points in a utility fowl. A White Rock cockerel and a pullet from the project pen of Raymond Launer were used in the demonstration.

Davies through the demonstration team explained the good points of the various breeds of rabbits. A detailed explanation of the plan for conditioning rabbits for exhibit purposes was given and he invited the local boys to exhibit at the bench show to be given September 6 at Alamitos.

A short business session was held by the local club concerning the final plans for the La Habra 4-H fair to be held Saturday.

About 20 rabbits and the same number of poultry will be displayed from the local projects.

CLUB MEMBERS TOLD OF EASY TAHITI LIFE

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 1.—American business men worry themselves half to death in the mad scramble for profits and for so called amusement, members of the Newport Harbor Service club were told at yesterday's weekly luncheon meeting at El Portal cafe, by three visitors recently returned from Tahiti, in the South seas. They were A. R. Rousseau, Santa Ana and Balboa, realtor; R. L. Patterson, city engineer of Newport Beach, and Carl Hofer, disabled veteran of Laguna Beach, who had been at Tahiti for three years seeking a return to health.

The best thing about visiting a place like Tahiti, out of civilization as the western world knows it, is that there one does not worry about anything, Patterson said.

"You know you can't get to your business, for a boat calls only about once a month. Otherwise most of the 'go-getters' would be dashing back and forth at every change of the stock market tape," he said.

Rousseau, who has come back from his third trip to the famous South sea isle, told of the marvelous fruit and vegetable crops which grow so profusely on the rich soil that the natives need do hardly any work to live, also of the highly-colored fish with which the waters teem.

There is no daily race there in which one man seeks to beat another at trade or finance.

Hofer said that when an American lives for a short time in countries, like the South seas and Mexico, where they close up all business, no matter how "rushing" it is, before noon, and leave it closed for about three hours, he gets into the same habits.

The voyagers brought back some interesting pictures of each other in South sea garb. H. L. Sherman, another harbor district resident, is in Tahiti, also his third trip, writing and making moving pictures which he plans to show in Southern California during the coming fall and winter.

Flames Menace 2 Brea Residences

BREA, Sept. 1.—Brea's fire company was called out Wednesday afternoon for a grass fire in the 350 block on North Orange street on a vacant lot. Two residences were threatened by the fire but no damage resulted.

ISSUES WARNING TO DOVE HUNTERS

Warning dove hunters and campers to take extra precautions in the prevention of fires, Joe Sherman, state forest ranger, issued an appeal today to reduce the number of fires and the resulting damage to property, land, and water sheds.

With the opening of dove season today, Sherman pointed out that more people would be in the mountains. Already this year, there have been 23 fires, property damage amounting to $61,820, and a burned over area of 1419 acres, whereas at the same time last year, there had been only 28 fires and the total damage was $15,840. Sherman urged hunters and campers to respect the no smoking laws in certain areas and also the fact that it is illegal to trespass on posted land without the permission of the owner.

CLUB ENTERTAINED WESTMINSTER. Sept. 1.—The Blue Bird club, members of a class of music pupils of Miss Arline Birchard, was entertained this week in the home of Mrs. Anna Campbell.

BROADER KNOWLEDGE NEEDED

They are having a truce in the farm strike in Iowa. The governors of nine states are gathered to see what they can do about it. There is no question but that the farm strikers will not solve very much of their problem by the route they are traveling.

It must be a much farther reaching organization than any local group to be able to protect the price of farm crops through withholding them from the market. Perishable goods that cannot be shipped, might have their prices temporarily raised, but the moment that the strike is released, and the goods started to the market, they would promptly fall, and it would not affect prices of goods which are produced in areas larger than the strike area.

The economic ills which affect great masses of people cannot be eradicated by such a process. They are touching but one slight phase, and even that phase in a very slight way. Government action, which results in raising the prices of nearly everything the farmer buys, and leaving him at the mercy of the independent elements, which produce what the farmer has to sell, is a partial trouble.

But we must look for our leadership today, not among those who are selfishly interested in the workings of a particular plan, but from those, who, with a thorough knowledge of the subject, are considering it from its broader aspects. The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, in their recent proclamation, come infinitely nearer to the solution than the messy little programs suggested by officialdom, and groups organized for personal interests which conflict with others.

THE U. S. SENATE RACE

Tubbs is nominated on the Republican ticket, an out-and-out "wet," and yet he ran slightly over 18,000 ahead of Shuler, an out-and-out "dry." Shuler received 195,881 votes and Tubbs 214,005.

Shuler received nearly 300,000 votes in the Democratic and Republican primaries. While the figures on the Prohibition ticket are not available, it is very probable that he received over 300,000 votes of the citizens of California on Tuesday for the United States Senate. He received 11,000 votes more than did Mr. Crail on the Republican ticket.

Senator Shortridge, while he voted for the beer bill in Congress, and declared for re-submission, was not as radically "wet" as was Mr. Tubbs, who was nominated. It is very probable that a large portion of the Shortridge vote was of nominally "dry" people. But the vote clearly shows that if the Republican "dry" voters had united upon either Shuler or Crail, the one receiving the benefit of such union would have unquestionably been nominated. But division again gives the "wettest" candidate the show, and he always from the North.

It is entirely possible that in the light of the vote on the Republican ticket, that the Shuler vote will be the determining factor as to who will represent California in the United States Senate.

THE CHANGES IN EVENTS

One only needs to pick up the magazines of one year ago, as the writer has recently done, to learn how things of importance one year are forgotten the year after. We fret and stew about problems today which cease to exist a year hence. One wonders whether history is anything more than an account of changing problems. It is not hard to agree with some social scientists who say that there is no such thing as progress. What we call progress is nothing more than change.

There is something heartening and disheartening in this point of view. The heartening view is that the problems of today need not be taken so seriously as men always do take them; the disheartening view is that the future has little to offer in the way of betterment of man and the world.

But, perhaps, we need not confine ourselves to either one or the other of these points of view. It may be, probably actually is, that the problems of today serve only as stepping stones to the understanding of the problems of next year, that we are living in a universe that means good, and means it intensely, and that constant struggle is the greatest assurance of ultimate conquest. Look over last year's magazines with that point of view, and there is always light on the verge of the gloom.

VETERANS CONDEMN BONUS ARMY OUSTING

The Veterans of Foreign Wars, in their national encampment at Sacramento, evidently have been stirred by the driving of the bonus army out of Washington. Their resolutions, passed by the convention, are strongly condemnatory of this act, and urge their comrades to resent it.

The necessities of the case, the methods used, and whether serious injury were done, is in considerable dispute. The officials of the government have declared there was no brutality or injury, but many newspaper men and ex-service men who were there, and some of the hospital records, indicate differently. It was unfortunate indeed that General Glassford was not permitted to handle the situation through-out.

Some of our officials may have been sincere in their own minds, in confounding this group with a group of Communists, but it doesn't seem that the facts bear it out. The attempt to tie the term "Red" or "Communist" to those things we don't like has about played out. It has lost its force. It has been used too constantly. It has almost changed the meaning of "Reds," and made some elements respectable that didn't use to be.

ONE WAY OUT

Mayor Walker, it is declared, will not return to Albany to proceed with the hearing before the Governor. It looks as though the Mayor were headed for the "count." And if we can judge correctly, William Randolph Hearst sees it coming. He advises the Mayor to resign, and stand for re-election.

Evidently Hearst thinks that Jimmy would have more show with the voters of New York than he is going to have with Governor Roosevelt. Whether that would be true or not, it might save Jimmy from being ousted, and Roosevelt from a decision. It would give Hearst the way out, to enable him to stand by Tammany on the one side, and Roosevelt on the other. It is a great game.

SHIRTS AND WAR DEBTS

Lloyd George says that the British people must pay the Americans what they owe them; that they must not default, declaring: "I prefer to sell our last shirts rather than default." Evidently Lloyd George isn't so bad off. He has got more than one shirt. Of course if they could sell shirts enough, they might pay the debt.

"BUGS" BAER ON THE ECLIPSE

"Bugs" Baer says that during the two minutes of the total eclipse yesterday that the revenue agents in New York raided 300 New York speak-easies. The revenue agents must have concentrated in New York, and done some fast, quick work. But these eclipses don't come very often.

We Made 'Em

The San Diego Union

Everybody blames politicians—for everything, and the habit is not confined to this country. The German Vossische Zeitung, for example, recently ran an indictment under the heading "Damn the Politicians." It maintains that public servants are systematically wrecking this world of ours. And millions of laymen will applaud this charge.

Yet habitually we overlook one thing. Here in America voters made politicians what they are today. We don't expect them to think for themselves. In fact, we forbid them to do their own thinking. Countless small groups, with axes to grind, constantly make up politicians' minds for them. Today, for example, one million Americans are inflicting Congress at enormous cost in direct conflict with the interests of the majority. Even the veteran who condemns this, and who refuses to express himself publicly—which he rarely does—constantly and bitterly blames Congressmen—in private conversation. This is only one illustration. Local politics furnishes many more, proportionately, than national affairs. We say we seek able, "big" men for office. We do everything possible to make little men of them after the elections.

We offer them no secure tenure in office even when they are exceptionally able. They are paid far less than we could expect in private life for proportionate responsibility. They are rewarded for yielding to minority pressure. They can expect nothing but condemnation for resisting such pressure because only organization is articulate in politics. Although we tolerate many organizations, we have none devoted solely and unselfishly to the national interest, or, in local affairs, to the public interest.

These conditions, which we created, mould the politician in spite of himself. They will continue to mould him until we correct the cause, support real leadership, even when it demands a real sacrifice of us.

Japanese Enterprise

Riverside Daily Press

Japanese newspapers are said to have spent about $40,000 "covering" the Olympics. This for telegraph tolls alone. They had seventy accredited correspondents in the press section. During the days when their swimmers were fracturing records right and left these correspondents sent scores of rush messages with no thought as to the cost. Much of their copy was sent at the rush rate, which is $2.62 per word. Three minutes after these messages were placed on the wire here they were received in Japan. The biggest paper in Japan, the Asahi, has a paid circulation of more than 3,000,000 daily. In order to give their readers the quickest possible service, much of the copy sent to this paper went via rush rate.

They Made It, But It Doesn't Do Them Any Good!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE REST DISTURBER

The early birds are quiet now;
No more a shouting flock of them
Rehearses, on a neighboring bough,
From four to six fifteen A. M.
P. Shelley had a lot to say
For unpremeditated art.
But song, at such a time of day,
Falls not like music on my heart.
But when reigns silence overhead
And mute is all the feathered clan,
There comes, to function in its stead,
The clanging, banging ash-can man.

This master of the power of sound
By some uncanny instinct knows
How long to shuffle cans around
To blast all efforts at repose.
If he suspects that in the gloom,
Still wrapped in pleasant dreams I bask,
He's always certain to resume
His tintinnabulating task.
I know, the while my nerve ends throbb
And all my pulses jump and ache,
That he'll continue on the job
Till I am hopelessly awake.

I do not care for any form
Of harsh and sleep disturbing noise;
The rumbling of a thunderstorm
Is fatal to my equipoise.
I do not like the tenor bark
Of wild coyotes on the plain,
Nor owls, rehearsing in the dark
Their melancholy shrill refrain.
The creaking of a rusty gate
Will turn my eardrums inside out;
But more than all of these I hate
The man who bangs those cans about.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THREE TESTS OF GREAT ACTION

L. P. Jacks has suggested three standards by which we may well judge our actions and our enterprise. They are:

- (1) Idealism.
- (2) Efficiency.
- (3) Sportsmanship.

Here are three questions we may profitably ask respecting every effort we make:

- (1) Is it idealistic in its purpose?
- (2) Will it be executed in a businesslike way?
- (3) Will we bring a spirit of sportsmanship to it?

The idealist may be a sloppy worker and a poor sport. The business executive may be utterly insensitive to any appeal of idealism and a stranger to sportsmanship.

The truly sportsmanlike man may lack both idealism and business capacity. The economic dislocation we have suffered since 1929 has vividly illustrated the need of all three of these qualities in the governance of our common affairs.

All through our piping times of prosperity there were idealists warning us against anti-social practices and an undue materialism of mood, but their hands were not on the levers of power, and even if their hands had been on the levers of power they might have proved very unbusinesslike guides.

Before 1929 we were not lacking in leaders with superb executive capacity, but many such executives did not harness their amazing business genius to socially sound and properly idealistic purposes.

And there were thousands of well-intentioned Americans who had the spirit of true sportsmanship but lacked both social vision and business capacity.

The challenging days of economic reconstruction that lie ahead call for leaders in whom these three qualities of idealism, efficiency, and sportsmanship meet and merge.

The deeper we plunge into the problems of depression and the way out the more we are impressed by the fact that we cannot get far, even with the most brilliant planning, unless we build on the bed-rock of sound character, and I do not know a better definition of sound character than the definition implied by the three words: idealism, efficiency and sportsmanship.

Our Children

By Angelo Patri

"FOR ME"

"Come, Marianne, eat your cereal."

"I don't want any, mother."

"O yes, darling. Eat it for mother. Mother wants you to eat it for her sake. That's the dear child. Eat for mother."

"No, I won't. I won't eat for you unless you give me a piece of chocolate."

"But you can't eat candy before breakfast."

"Yes, I can and if you don't give it to me I won't eat for you."

Aunt Kitty had been listening in growing indignation. Now she broke out. "Margaret, if that child talked to me like that she'd feel something. The idea of telling you she won't eat for you. Give her a good smacking and tell her to eat her breakfast or leave it alone. I'd fix you, miss."

Marianne, safe in the shelter of her mother's wings stuck her tongue out at Aunt Kitty who stamped out of the room muttering, "If that child belonged to me believe me—"

It is a great mistake to ask a child to eat or sleep or play or live for us. It is giving the child a wrong impression and building up in his mind a whole train of ideas that are false and which will lead him into trouble in days to come. He does not live for us. He lives for himself first and last and all the time. Say what you will about unselfishness it is the veneer on humanity. Self comes first.

Then don't ask a child to eat for your sake, or to do anything else for your sake. Teach him by a certain aloofness that he eats and drinks, that he moves and has his being for himself. He studies his lessons for himself. He learns and he grows and he works for himself. Teach him that the first person that is hurt by his refusal to perform in accordance with the best standards is the one he loves best, himself. He knows it anyway. But let him know that you know it too.

Much as we love children we have to keep a distance between them and us. That distance is there whether we see it or not and it will make itself felt if we disregard it. We must not intrude upon the personality of the child by asking him to eat for us, or do any of the other most personal things for us. Keep on the basis of fact. He is himself. What he does must be accountable for to himself. It is kinder to teach him that from the beginning.

It is difficult for a mother or teacher to keep this distance between herself and a child. It is agreeable to one's feelings to have a child do things for our sakes. But it does not do much good to the child. It puts us in a false position. The child believes us to be under obligation to him for his services to us and you and I know that this is nonsense.

Teach a child that his job on this earth is the creation of a fine self. Teach him that all he does, all he thinks, goes into the making of that very personal self and that in the doing, the suffering, the achievement he serves himself. If, after he learns that we are personally aloof, we can inspire him to service so much the better, but we need not trouble about it. The child who grows a fine self will dedicate it to the service of others as naturally as he breathes. His very freedom of spirit will induce him to do so.

TODAY IS THE WORLD WAR ANNIVERSARY

PERONNE IS TAKEN

On Sept. 1, 1918, Australian troops stormed the important town of Peronne, taking more than 2000 prisoners and many valuable supplies.

British forces took Bullecourt, where they had been repulsed the day before, at the point of the bayonet. They also occupied Hendeourt and several villages north of Bapaume.

Americans, fighting on Belgian soil for the first time, took Voormezele and nearby villages in a day of hard fighting and swift advance.

North of Juivigny, American troops advanced more than two miles, taking many strong positions and continuing the pressure on German forces on that sector.

An official allied report said that 324 German planes were brought down in August.
